

Muscat, Oman

Our company's roots are in Oman. Our Muscat office is home to dedicated members of the wider Freight and Procurement teams who have vast experience in the Middle East region with its diverse cultures and complex trading regulations.

Our Freight division operates in-country under the name Oman Freight & Trading Corporation (OFTC) LLC and has been in operation since 1999.

Primarily as a multi modal forwarder handling inbound and outbound global cargo. The office is busy handling cargo for its own Omani client base with the support of the Charles Kendall network whilst still maintaining its role as liaison office for key Charles Kendall Freight accounts.

Freight services include full import and export freight forwarding, customs clearance services and trade compliance consultation and dedicated support for Omani customers

Charles Kendall Procurement joined the office in 2002. Their main activities include sourcing items and following up quotes and proposals, regular visits to end-users, increasing agency base via networking through the British Embassy and UKTI and acting as the liaison between London based team and Middle East based customers.

Principal customers including The Ministry of Defence, Oman Air, Royal Court and various other Governments departments who are able to utilise a local representative in either division to assist with sourcing requirements or inbound/outbound cargo.

The office receives full management support from the UK including accounting, marketing and I.T.
