

Sydney, Australia

Our Sydney office is home to a specialist team of procurement consultants with a proven track record of delivering results across the entire supply chain.

The Australasian arm of Charles Kendall's procurement and consulting operations was established in 2015 after the acquisition of Project Procure, a procurement consultancy firm with a strong portfolio of government, health, transport and resources clients throughout Australasia and the Asia Pacific.

Our team in the Sydney office understands that quality procurement is about more than just price. It's about delivering long-lasting value and first-class service that will continue to reap benefits well beyond our original engagement.

We deliver this value through strategic thinking, evidence and experience-based advice, exceptional standards of probity, and total commitment to providing real, measurable results. Our service streams include:
