

Education Services

Tailored Education

Charles Kendall's uniquely experienced consultants in Kenya offer the benefits of unrivalled local and international knowledge in fulltime and distance learning education.

Our consultants will ensure that the decision you will make in regards to your education is the right one for your life and career. Centred precisely upon one's own goals and future career objectives and aspirations, our services and recommendations are based on extensive research.

At Charles Kendall we are proud of our dedication to the success and academic achievements of our students. Our consultants provide personalised and exceptional support to both fulltime and distance learning students.

A Personal Touch

We understand that finding the right place at the right university is a vital life decision. We believe in delivering exceptional value, and first-class standards of service, as well as independence and transparency.

You can have confidence in our impartial commitment when securing an educational institution for your future career.
